

What's new in the studio...

From the Book of Remembrance

my new collection of poems and paintings has been published by Shanti Arts! Order one at your local bookstore or order from www.shantiarts.co.

 Look for forthcoming poems in:
Green Mountain Review & The Found Poetry Review

A collection of love poems, but not typical love poems. These are gritty and confrontational, made of blood and spit. These explore relationship with the beloved, the one that makes our heart sing, whether in the world or the divine realm.
